Walking Barefoot Jeff Doles 2002 TAKE OFF YOUR SHOES, YOU ARE ON HOLY GROUND! When Moses approached the burning bush, in Exodus 3, the Lord spoke to him and said, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground" (v. 5). Like Moses, we must realize that God's presence is holy ~ He'll not have us separated from Him by any of our human contrivances. It's about an ongoing relationship, learning to love God deeply, trusting Him more and more, partnering with Him in the world, flowing in His power to fulfill His purposes. These writings are about faith, the things that activate it and the things that hinder it. They are about praying according to the will of God and expecting to see results. They are about speaking in agreement with the Word of God in ways that are life-changing and world-changing. They are about God's desire to bless, heal and prosper His people. They are about receiving the wonderful inheritance we have in God, and passing it on to our children. They are about healing, for the inner and outer man. They are about giving and forgiving ~ and thanksgiving. They are about growing strong in faith and joyfully enduring in difficult situations. They are about moving mountains. In this book you will learn about:

Calling Things That Are Not Charles Capps 2016-03 The principle of calling things that are not as though they were is the spiritual principle through which everything physical becomes manifest. God created the light by calling for "light" when only darkness was there. Jesus used this same method, calling the lepers clean, and the dead to life, and peace to the storm. You must call for what you desire. if you want your dog to come, you call the dog, not the cat. You call for what is not there. Whatever you call in the natural will come. Call what does not exist and continue to call until it manifests.

The Power of Confession Gery Malanda

Confession is a word we have heard often but not truly had a biblical understanding of it. Confession has been associated with religion where we confess our sin or has been likened to a declaration. Brother Gery Malanda (Apostle and Leader of House Of Prayer For All Nations-Europe and Teacher on TBN's Voice of Healing UK) gives a biblical teaching on what is confession. He explores what the bible teaches on confession of sin and the power of the blood of Jesus in cleaning ALL sins. Brother Gery highlights the power of exposing the works of darkness by confessing our secret sin using biblical examples as well as sharing from his own personal experiences. Through the word of God, he demystifies what God meant in forgiving of sin. In this book, he presents the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross as a salvation package that provides for our salvation, healing, deliverance and prosperity. Finally, Brother Gery explores the importance of confessing the word of God in one's life highlighting its advantages. The three components that are involved in a true confession and the power of the tongue in framing the world around you. Through this succinct teaching Brother Gery demonstrates the importance of thinking as God thinks, saying only what God is saying and doing only what is doing according to His word in transforming yourself and the world around you.

Faith and Confession Study Guide Charles Capps 2017

The Worldview of the Word of Faith

Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael

Stenhammar 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview, and analyses the movement through N. T. Wright's model for worldview-analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith. The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative, semiotic, practical and propositional dimensions, which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world. The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings. This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection. The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism.

Importing Faith Glyn J. Ackerley 2016-07-28 Many twenty-first-century evangelical charismatics in Britain are looking for a faith that works. They want to experience the miraculous in terms of healings and Godsent financial provision. Many have left the mainstream churches to join independentcharismatic churches led by those who are perceived to have special insights and to teach principles that will help believers experience the miraculous. But all is not rosy in this promised paradise, and when people are not healed or they remain poor they are often told that it is because they did not have enough faith. This study discovers the origin of the principles that are taught by some charismatic leaders. Glyn Ackerley identifies them as the same ideas that are taught by the positive confession, health, wealth, and prosperity movement, originating in the United States. The origins of the ideas are traced back to New Thought metaphysics and its background philosophies of subjective idealism and pragmatism. These principles were imported into the UK through contact between British leaders and those influenced by American word of faith teachers. Glyn Ackerley explains the persuasiveness of such teachers by examining case studies, suggesting their miracles may well have social and psychological explanations rather than divine origins.
